1 PROPOUNDING PARTY: Plaintiff THEFACEBOOK, INC.

2 RESPONDING PARTY: Defendant DIVYA NARENDRA

3 SET NO.: ONE (1)

4

5 TO PLAINTIFF AND ITS ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

6 The above-named party hereby responds, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
 7 Section 2030.210(a), to the First Set of Special Interrogatories as follows:

8 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

9 1. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and to the definitions and instructions to 10 the extent they seek to impose obligations that are broader than or inconsistent with the California
 11 Code of Civil Procedure and applicable Local Rules or court orders.

12 2. Responding party objects to each interrogatory, and to the definitions and instructions to 13 the extent they seek the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege, attorney
 14 work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or protection, as provided by any applicable
 15 law. Responding party does not intend to produce such privileged or protected documents or 16 information, and the inadvertent disclosure of such is not to be deemed a waiver of any privilege.
 17 Responding party expressly reserves the right to object to the introduction at trial or any other use of 18 such information that may be inadvertently disclosed. In addition, Responding party objects to the 19 interrogatories and all definitions and instructions to the extent they seek and/or require Responding
 20 party to produce a privilege log for documents or information falling within the attorney-client
 21 privilege or work-product doctrine, if such documents or information were created after the date that 22 this lawsuit was filed.

23 3. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all other definitions and instructions
 24 to the extent they are vague, overly broad, unduly burdensome, exceed the boundaries of 25 discoverable information, or fail to describe the information sought with the required reasonable 26 particularity.

27 4. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all definitions and instructions to the 28 extent the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, given the needs

1 of the case, the amount in controversy, the parties' resources, the importance of the issues at stake in
2 the litigation, and the importance of the proposed discovery in resolving the issues.

3       5. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all other definitions and instructions
4 to the extent they seek information that is confidential financial, proprietary, trade secret or other
5 confidential or competitively sensitive business information relating to Responding party or any
6 third party. Responding party reserves the right to object that certain information is so confidential
7 and sensitive that it will not be produced even pursuant to a protective order.

8       6. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all definitions and instructions to the 9 extent they seek information not in Responding Party's custody or control.

10       7. Responding party objects to the interrogatory and all other definitions and instructions to 11 the extent they seek information that is beyond the scope of this litigation, is not relevant, or that 12 falls outside the parameters of discoverable information under the California Code of Civil 13 Procedure.

14       8. Responding party has not yet completed its investigation, collection of information,
15 discovery, and analysis relating to this action. The following response is based on information
16 known and available to Responding party at this time. Responding party reserves the right to 17 modify, change, or supplement its response and to produce additional evidence at trial.

18       9. Responding party's agreement to furnish information in response to Plaintiff's
19 interrogatories shall not be deemed as an admission regarding the relevance of the requested
20 information, nor is it intended to waive any right to object the admissibility of such at trial.

21       10. Responding party objects to producing at this time documents unrelated to the issue of 22 personal jurisdiction over the individual Defendants.

23                   OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS

24       1.        Responding party objects to all definitions to the extent they impose burdens on 25 responding different or greater than those provided in the California Code of Civil Procedure.

26       2.        Responding party objects to all definitions to the extent that they are burdensome,
27 oppressive and unnecessary.

1       3. Responding party objects to the definition of "ConnectU" as overly oppressive,
2 burdensome, and effectively creating a subpart, compound and/or complex interrogatory. When the 3 word "ConnectU" is used in an interrogatory, Responding party shall assume it means only the 4 limited liability company entitled ConnectU L.L.C.

5       4. Responding party objects to the definition of "Harvardconnection", as vague,
6 uncertain and overbroad. When the word Harvardconnection is used in an interrogatory,
7 Responding party shall assume it means only the unincorporated entity once called
8 "Harvardconnection".

9       5. Responding party objects to the definition of "Facebook" as vague, uncertain,
10 overbroad and unintelligible. When the word Facebook is used in an interrogatory, Responding
11 party shall assume it means only the entity identified in the complaint.

12       6. Responding party objects to the definition of "Winklevoss Companies" as vague,
13 overbroad, oppressive, and burdensome.

14       7. Responding party objects to the phrase "Pacific Northwest Software" as uncertain,
15 overbroad and unintelligible. When the phrase "Pacific Northwest Software" is used in an 16 interrogatory, Responding party will assume it means an entity providing certain software.

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS

18       1. Responding party objects to Instruction No. 1 as beyond the scope of the California
19 Code of Civil Procedure.

20       2. Responding party objects to Instruction Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5 as compound, complex
21 and creating subpart interrogatories.

22       3. Responding party objects to Instruction Nos. 7, and 8 as compound, complex, and 23 creating subpart interrogatories.

24       4. Responding party objects to Instruction No. 10 as compound, complex, and creating 25 subpart interrogatories.
